Our Philosophy

We at ILSCA believe that all the things that we do for our users — selecting a mediator, negotiating fees, managing the finances, supervision — can be done more conveniently, more effectively and at less cost, than could the parties themselves. This is where we believe ILSCA adds value to mediation. ILSCA has tried its best to keep the cost of mediation competitive. As a not-for-profit organization, ILSCA seeks to recover, by way of fees, what it costs ILSCA to provide its administrative services. Our fee scales reflect these guiding principles.

How the Fees Apply

The costs of mediation ordinarily include mediator's fee, travel expenses of the mediator, expenses of witnesses including their travel expenses, expenses incurred for services of the stenographer, translation and interpretation charges, if any, and other incidental expenses arising out of or in connection with the mediation proceeding.

In institutional mediation, there is a link created by the institution between the mediators and the parties. ILSCA (IM) Rules have been framed to regulate the mediation proceedings like the procedures for the appointment, challenge and substitution of mediators; ethical rules that specify duties and responsibilities of mediators; clerical and administrative services required for conducting mediation proceedings. ILSCA provides administrative services like receiving written applications by the parties, serve notices, etc. and also provide premises for the hearings. The ILSCA Schedule of Fees - Mediation makes the cost of mediation predictable. In ILSCA-assisted mediations, it is possible for the parties to foresee the total cost of mediations according to their amount of claim.

Costs of mediation incurred during mediation proceedings may be broadly classified into two categories. The first category may be said to include the expenses parties incur, such as costs of legal representation, witnesses, and party-appointed experts.

The second category of costs include the procedural costs of mediation, like institutional administrative fees, mediator's fees and expenses, and other logistical expenses incurred during the proceedings. Thus, the term "costs" includes mainly two types of costs: 1. Party costs and 2. Procedural costs.

Under ILSCA (IM) Rules only the procedural costs are provided which parties will incur for mediations conducted as per ILSCA (IM) Rules.

Where a dispute is administered according to ILSCA (IM) Rules, parties have to pay Non-refundable ILSCA Filing Fee, ILSCA Administrative Fee and the Mediator's fee. These fees vary according to the amount of the claim.

In cases falling outside ILSCA (IM) Rules, where parties merely seek help from ILSCA for appointment of mediators, there is a charge known as Mediator Appointment Fee mentioned in the ILSCA Schedule of Fees – Mediation. The Mediator Appointment Fee, is a flat fee, not dependent on the amount of the Claim.

ILSCA SCHEDULE OF FEES– MEDIATION

ILSCA Schedule of Fees – Mediation is effective from 10th January 2021 and is applicable to all mediations commenced on or after such date in accordance with ILSCA (IM) Rules.

This Schedule of Fees may be amended from time to time and any revised Schedule of Fees shall take effect from the date determined by the Appointing Authority, ILSCA in consultation with Advisory Body of ILSCA.

There are broadly four types of charges to be paid for carrying out any mediation proceedings administered by ILSCA under ILSCA (IM) Rules. They are:

- A. Non-Refundable ILSCA Filing Fee
- B. ILSCA Administrative Fee
- C. ILSCA Mediator Fee
- D. Miscellaneous Expenses

A. Non-refundable ILSCA Filing Fee

The Non-refundable ILSCA Filing Fee is payable by the Requesting Party at the time of filing a Request for Commencement of Mediation with Appointing Authority, ILSCA. It is a flat fee payable on registration of every new case at the ILSCA, to be referred to mediation in accordance with ILSCA (IM) Rules.

B. ILSCA Administrative Fee

ILSCA Administrative Fee is utilized towards expenses incurred by ILSCA in the day-to-day administration of mediations. ILSCA Administrative fee is calculated according to the sum in dispute. Where the Claim resulting from the dispute is undervalued or not quantified, then in that event the Appointing Authority, ILSCA shall at its discretion proceed to revise or fix a value for such claims and the ILSCA Administrative Fee shall then be revised or computed accordingly.

ILSCA Administrative Fee is to be shared equally between the parties. The parties are jointly and severally liable for the payment of the fee.

The ILSCA Administrative fee does not include the following:

- Fees of the Mediator;
- Expenses of the Mediator(s) - Out of pocket expenses (like amount spent by the mediators for their travel, lodging and boarding etc.,)
- Usage cost of facilities provided by ILSCA mentioned as under:
 - i. Usage cost of the hearing rooms;
 - ii. Usage cost of video/audio conference facilities;
 - iii. Cost of other services like transcription and interpretation services;
 - iv. Any other support services for and in connection with any hearing.g., lunch and refreshments.

C. Mediator's Fee

Mediator's Fee is payable to the Appointing Authority, ILSCA. The parties shallnot directly pay the fees to the mediators.

The Mediator's Fee is to be shared equally by the parties asper Fee Payment Schedule provided below.

The Mediator's Fee is ascertained according to the Sum in Dispute.

Where the Claim resulting from the dispute is undervalued or notquantified, then in that event the Appointing Authority, ILSCA shall at its discretionproceed to revise or fix a value for such claims and the Mediator's Fee shall thenbe revised or computed accordingly.
